

SARRATT PARISH COUNCIL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES: CODE OF CONDUCT

As members of Sarratt Parish Council, Councillors have a responsibility to represent the community and work constructively with Parish Council staff, other Councillors and partner organisations to secure better social, economic and environmental outcomes for all.

In accordance with the Localism Act provisions, when acting in this capacity Councillors commit to behaving in a manner that is consistent with the following principles to achieve best value for the residents of Sarratt Parish and maintain public confidence in the authority of the Parish Council.

SELFLESSNESS: Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends.

INTEGRITY: Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.

OBJECTIVITY: In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.

ACCOUNTABILITY: Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.

OPENNESS: Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.

HONESTY: Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.

LEADERSHIP: Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

As a member of Sarratt Parish Council the conduct of its Councillors will in particular address the statutory principles of the Code of Conduct by:

- Championing the needs of residents – the whole community and its constituents, putting their interests first.
- Dealing with representations or enquiries from residents, members of the community and visitors fairly, appropriately and impartially.
- Not allowing other pressures, including their own financial interests or those of others connected to them, to deter them from pursuing constituents' casework, the interests of the Parish Council or the good governance of the Parish Council in a proper manner.
- Exercising independent judgement and not compromising their position by placing themselves under obligations to outside individuals or organisations who might seek to influence the way they perform their duties as a member/co-opted member of the Parish Council.
- Listening to the interests of all parties, including relevant advice from statutory and other professional officers, taking all relevant information into consideration, remaining objective and making decisions on merit.
- Being accountable for their decisions and co-operating when scrutinised internally and externally, including by local residents.
- Contributing to making the Parish Council's decision-making processes as open and transparent as possible to enable residents to understand the reasoning behind those decisions and to be informed when holding themselves and other members to account but restricting access to information when the wider public interest or the law requires it
- Behaving in accordance with all legal obligations, alongside any requirements contained within the Parish Council's policies, protocols and procedures, including on the use of the Parish Council's resources.
- Valuing colleagues and Council staff, engaging with them and supporting them in an appropriate manner and one that underpins the mutual respect between Councillors that is essential to good local government.
- Always treating people with respect, including the organisations and public Councillors engage with and those work alongside.
- Providing leadership through behaving in accordance with these principles when championing the interests of the community with other organisations as well as within this authority.
